PINELAND.

Pineland, Texas, Jan. 16.—On Wednesday night, Jan. 15, Rev. H. C. Hardin of Bonham, La., upon the request of the Colored Red Cross Society addressed a large audience at the First Baptist church.

Amid the cheers of his hearers he so beautifully and philosophically discussed the origin of the Negro race which he characterized as the greatest on earth. He cited their skill and mastery of art in the building of the pyramids of Egypt, one of the seven wonders of the world, and of the building of the unrivaled city of Nineveh of its time and then said, "the Negro is worthy of any boast of past achievements or of any future hope."

Dr. Hardin reviewed the conduct of the race during this great world war, picturing the courage and bravery of our boys at the battle front. "The race has shed its blood in the defense of its country in every war that the U. S. has participated in. He proved and proudly proclaimed that his race had never produced a Benedict Arnold and doesn't believe that it ever will."

In speaking of the different wars and their effects upon mankind, and especially in speaking of the race problem, he said, "God has his hand in the web and is pulling the tangle straight."

Everyone who heard Dr. Hardin agrees that he is a genius, a mighty spokesman for his race. In speaking of President Wilson, he styled him as the world's foremost man. He feels that it was the plan of God that Mr. Wilson was elected to his office.

Dr. Hardin believes as other thinking men of the country think, that when the nations representatives at the Peace table are fixing standards for the nations that there will be a word said in favor of the American Negro.

Preliminary to the address by Dr. Hardin, Prof. J. M. Hurdle, principal of the Colored school with a number of his pupils rendered a short and timely program for the occasion, after which Prof. W. B. Hargis, (white) City Superintendent of the public schools was presented, who with fitting words pictured the Red Cross society the greatest human aid society that the world has ever had.

There were several of the leading white people present to hear this champion race man. Among the pastors of the town present were, Rev. L. V. Bolton of Timpan, Texas and Rev. I. B. Ruffin.

ATHENS.

Athens, Texas, Jan. 16.—Services were well attended Sunday at the A. M. E. and Mt. Providence Baptist churches. Rev. S. S. Stevens filled his pulpit. Mr. Jno. and Willie McDonald were called to Kaufman to the bed side of their sick brother. Mrs. Dicy Ray of Jacksonville was called here to the bedside of her grand mother, Mrs. Laura H. Miller entertained with a social at her home in honor of Miss Myrtle Smith, who returned to Ennis to re-enter school. Mr. Allen Dannel of Latur, was here on business and leaves three-months' subscription for The Express. Mrs. Maggie Mitchell served 37 at her home Sunday with a delicious dinner. Those out of town who attended were: Mrs. Eliza Trambell, Miss Blanche and Alma Trambell, Mrs. Joera Florence, Mrs. Prof. Foster, Mrs. Nobles, Mrs. Sarah Blackman and Mr. Robert Brown all from Kemp. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Massey, Jr., have moved to the country to farm. Miss Frankie Hamilton and Miss Jewel of Palestine returned home after two weeks' visit to Mrs. Ed. Hamilton and Mrs. Mattie Miller. Mrs. Lucy Richardson returned from Pine Grove. Mrs. Katie Anderson of Waco, was called here to the bed side of Mrs. Viola (Kile) Berry who is not expected to recover. Mr. Charlie Chase spent a few days out of town on lodge business. All who owe for The Express send The Express at E. G. Frank's barbershop.

LAWTON.

Lawton, Okla., Jan. 16.—Services were well attended at the Baptist church last Sunday at the evening services the pastor preached a soul stirring sermon.

Mrs. Anna Houston, who has been visiting her parents at Chandler, Okla., has returned home.

A. The Post Field, last Monday, Sergeant Denkhams was instantly killed by getting in the way of an airplane that was about to fly. The propeller struck his head, splitting his skull.

Miss Annie Murriel Marshall of Chickasha, formerly of this city spent Sunday here, the guest of friends.

Rev. Seals, pastor of the Methodist church returned from Conference very sick with influenza.

Miss Alma Ekstrom left for her home in Chickasha, Okla., she has been in our city attending Bailey's business school.

The Soldier's Friend. It has come to our attention of so many of our men coming home from the different camps; bringing such absurd reports about camp life. These men fail to realize the danger in which they are placing themselves. Not only that, but the reflection it places upon the moral of the Negro soldier. Let us announce from the pulpit, the Y. M. C. A., and other organizations to these men that such practices might be stopped.

Mrs. L. A. Houston is now handling the history of the war, entitled, "Our War for Human Rights," this is the last edition, giving events up to Nov. 11, 1918.

Card of Thanks. We take this method of thanking our numerous friends in and out of the city for their many words of condolence while being the victim of a run-away accident. Especially do we thank the members of Keywest Chapter No. 82, O. E. S., and the Ladies' Progressive club. May God's choice blessing rest upon each of you.

(Mrs.) J. H. Donaldson.
Mrs. J. L. Johnson.

Private J. C. Phillips, formerly of Dallas, Texas, now with the army of occupation in France has had the thoughtfulness to send to me a copy of The Stars and Stripes, published somewhere over yonder in France, bearing date of Dec. 6, 1918. It is the official organ of the A. E. F. at Verdun, No. 44, and contains eight pages. It is brimming with interesting news and carries a liberal amount of American and European advertisements. I shall keep the Stars and Stripes forever.
